

Laos

Laos is one of the world's poorest countries. It is spiritually hungry (less than half a percent are Christians), but restrictions on Christian witness, persecution and lack of mature church leadership hamper the spread of the gospel. We are in the process of sowing a seed into this nation through AOG World Relief.