

High School Outreaches

Metropolis Youth are excited to be serving various high school communities in the form of different outreaches run throughout the year.

These outreaches include:

- Shine a self esteem program for girls; and
- Make Some Noise a rock band jam session.

We are building awesome relationships with students and schools, forging positive, empowering friendships and connecting young people with God.